NOTICE REGARDING MEETING MATERIALS

In an effort to address reductions in expenditures and staffing, the Board of Behavioral Sciences will no longer reproduce and mail meeting materials effective January 1, 2011. The Board of Behavioral Sciences (BBS) will continue to post all meeting materials in a timely manner on its website at www.bbs.ca.gov.

Per Government Code Section 11125, BBS will provide notice of its meetings to any person who requests that notice in writing. Meeting notices will also be available on the BBS website.

Interested parties are encouraged to sign up on the BBS Subscriber List through the BBS website. This is a free service that notifies subscribers via email alerts regarding major updates to the BBS website, such as meeting agendas and materials, regulation and legislation updates, examination news, enforcement actions, and general information.

We apologize for any inconvenience and appreciate your understanding.
