Staff of the Office of Professional Examination Services (OPES) concluded their analysis to identify potential factors contributing to the lower pass rates on the California LPCC Law and Ethics Examination. The review examined candidate data spanning a five-year period, including demographics, educational background, and examination history. Based on the information available, no statistically significant or specific factors were identified that could explain the observed lower pass rates.

Examination Development

Between October 1, 2025, and December 31, 2025, a total of 5 workshops were conducted. Two workshops were held in person at OPES, and three were conducted at remote locations.

The workshops covered the following:

- LEP Item Writing
- LMFT-C Exam Construction
- LCSW Occupational Analysis
- LPCC Occupational Analysis (2)

The Board continues its ongoing collaboration with OPES to support the recruitment of qualified Subject Matter Experts (SME) for Board administered examinations. In fact, staff are currently finalizing a recruitment article for inclusion in the February Newsletter. The article provides an overview of participation opportunities, outlines the various workshop types, and details the required qualifications and applicable compensation. The goal is to secure additional qualified professionals that bring perspectives to the exam process, helping ensure that exam content is relevant, fair, and reflective of real-life practice across the profession.

American Association of Social Work Board (ASWB)-Clinical Exam

In August 2026, ASWB will launch updated exams as part of their ongoing commitment to meeting and exceeding industry standards.

The 2026 exams will feature a new structure centering candidates' experiences and a renewed focus on applied knowledge rather than simple recall of information.

The new exams will:

- Test three content areas rather than four, reflecting the consolidation of knowledge statements as determined through the practice analysis
- Feature fewer questions overall, reducing the number of both scored and pretest questions
- Increase the proportion of three-option multiple choice questions
- Include a higher proportion of questions that rely on the application of professional knowledge through the use of problem-solving and reasoning
- Retain the four-hour time limit to complete an exam
- Continue to follow psychometric standards for valid, reliable, and fair exams

In spring 2026, ASWB will provide additional information about the updates to the exams. This will include updated exam resources and a revised ASWB Examination Guidebook.

Pearson Vue

The Pearson VUE name is evolving and will soon be known simply as Pearson as part of a broader, company-wide rebrand. The Board will share additional details and communicate these changes to candidates as more information becomes available.

As part of the Pearson VUE (PV) Migration and Modularization initiative, PV is modernizing the candidate web experience to enhance usability and streamline key workflows. The first phase of this effort- an updated Candidate Account Management system scheduled for rollout in January will feature a cleaner interface, improved navigation, and more efficient workflows, making it easier for candidates to manage their account information.

Throughout the coming year, PV will continue to roll out enhancements across other areas of the candidate web experience, including scheduling and registration. These improvements are designed to provide a seamless, intuitive process for candidates when booking and managing exams.

Additionally, Pearson VUE has established a group email address for state agency clients. This inbox will be monitored by a designated team responsible for reviewing inquiries and responding directly when possible, or forwarding them to the program manager if further assistance is required. This approach is intended to ensure all inquiries are addressed as promptly as possible.

Finally, exam staff are currently reviewing the candidate handbook and will submit updates and minor revisions for publication in February.
