Frequently Asked Questions

ASW Subsequent Registration Applicants

1. If I apply for a second number, will I lose all of my hours because they were gained under my first number?

Not necessarily, but all hours of experience must be gained within the most recent six (6) years from the time the Board receives your Application for Licensure and Examination. Hours older than six (6) years at the time you apply will not count. For example: The Board receives Susan's Application for Licensure and Examination on 4/27/2020. All of the hours she gained (under all ASW numbers) between 4/27/2014 and 4/27/2020 would be acceptable.

2. Can I work in a private practice setting under my second (or third, etc.) ASW registration number?

No. An applicant issued a subsequent ASW number is prohibited from working in a private practice setting. All other work settings are permissible.

3. Do I need to maintain a current Associate registration number once I have submitted my Application for Licensure and Examination to the Board?

The Board encourages all individuals to maintain a current Associate registration and to continue recording experience hours until licensed as an LCSW, as a safeguard in the event that some of the hours submitted are unable to be accepted by the Board either now or in the future due to application abandonment and/or the "six-year rule" (see the FAQs for ASWs for more information).

Whether you are required by law to maintain a registration, however, will depend on the type of setting you are working in. If working in a private practice, you are required to maintain a current Associate registration until your LCSW license has been issued. If you are working in an exempt setting (an institution that is both non-profit and charitable, a school or a governmental entity), or other non-private practice setting, you are not required to maintain a registration once you have submitted your experience hours. However, your employer may require it as a condition of employment.

4. Where can I get more information about the California Law and Ethics exam?

See the Exams tab on the Board's website for information about the LCSW California Law and Ethics exam and how to apply.
