Important Information for LICENSED CLINICAL SOCIAL WORKER APPLICANTS

1. AVOID LOSING EXPERIENCE HOURS AND INCURRING ADDITIONAL FEES BY MEETING THE TIME FRAMES BELOW

An application shall be deemed abandoned, meaning your file will be closed, in any of the circumstances described below. File closure could have major consequences, including the loss of any experience hours more than six (6) years old at the time of re-application. To re-open an abandoned (closed) application, you must submit a new application, fee, and all required documentation, as well as meet all current licensure requirements in effect at the time the new application is submitted.

- You do not submit evidence that you have cleared the deficiencies specified in your application deficiency letter within one (1) year from the date of the initial deficiency letter.
- You fail to sit for examination within one (1) year after being notified of eligibility.
- You fail to pay the initial license fee within one (1) year after notification by the board of successful completion of examination requirements.

2. WHAT HAPPENS AFTER THE BOARD EVALUATES MY APPLICATION?

Once the Board evaluates your application, you will receive one of the following:

- A notice describing any deficiencies in your application OR
- A notice of eligibility to take your required examination(s), including information on how to register for the examination(s).
 - In-State and "Path B" Out-of-State Applicants: You will not be eligible to take the National Association of Social Work Boards (ASWB) Clinical Examination until you have passed the LCSW California Law and Ethics Exam.

The examinations contain objective multiple-choice questions and are offered at locations throughout California and in other states. Upon receipt of your notice of eligibility, it is your responsibility to contact the testing administrator to schedule your examination. Further information about the examination process is provided under the Exams tab on the Board's website (access at <https://www.bbs.ca.gov/exams>).

3. REQUEST FOR TESTING ACCOMMODATION – DISABILITY OR ENGLISH IS YOUR SECOND LANGUAGE

BACKGROUND INFORMATION – RESPONSE IS VOLUNTARY

Some criminal convictions will appear on the Board's background check and may require additional investigation prior to a licensing determination. For information on which convictions the Board is permitted to consider, see the Criminal Conviction FAQ. All currently pending criminal actions will appear on the Board's background check and may require additional investigation prior to a licensing determination.

You are not required to disclose any past convictions or pending criminal cases on this application. In some cases, voluntarily providing information with the application about convictions that the Board is permitted to consider may help an application get processed more quickly. You may therefore choose to complete the Background Statement form and submit it with your application along with evidence of rehabilitation. The form is available on the Board's website, and includes areas to report convictions the board is permitted to consider, or pending criminal actions.

You can also submit the Background Statement form and evidence of rehabilitation after you submit your application or in response to inquiries from the Board. You may seek legal assistance from a lawyer or legal aid organization before providing any information about your criminal history. The Board will not deny your application because you exercised your right not to provide criminal history information in your initial application.

NOTE: Knowingly making a false statement of fact that is required to be revealed in this application may be grounds for denial of this application
